PRIVACY NOTICE

We may also use your personal information, typically in an emergency, where this is necessary to protect your vital interests, or someone else's vital interests. In a small number of cases where other lawful bases do not apply, we will process your data on the basis of your consent.

How we apply further protection in the case of "Special Categories" of personal data

"Special categories" of particularly sensitive personal information require higher levels of protection. We need to have further justification for collecting, storing and using this type of personal information.

The Special Categories of personal data consist of data revealing:

- racial or ethnic origin;
- political opinions;
- religious or philosophical beliefs;
- trade union membership.

They also consist of the processing of:

- genetic data;
- biometric data for the purpose of uniquely identifying someone;
- data concerning health;
- data concerning someone's sex life or sexual orientation.

We may process special categories of personal information in the following circumstances:

We have in place appropriate policy documents and/or other safeguards which we are required by law to maintain when processing such data.

Less commonly, we may process this type of information where it is needed in relation to legal claims or where it is needed to protect your interests (or someone else's interests) and you are not capable of giving your consent, or where you have already made the information public.

Criminal convictions and allegations of criminal activity

Further legal controls apply to data relating to criminal convictions and allegations of criminal activity. We may process such data on the same grounds as those identified for "special categories" referred to above.

DATA THAT YOU PROVIDE TO US AND THE POSSIBLE CONSEQUENCES OF YOU NOT PROVIDING IT

Most data that you provide to us is processed by us in order that we, and you, can each fulfil our contractual obligations and/or comply with obligations imposed by law. For example:

- Financial information, as listed above, must be provided as part of any contract between us for the provision of services or access to facilities.
- Personal data of programme attendees and group leaders, including academic records and details of affiliated organisations, must be provided to us under the contract in place between us, so that we can assess suitability for the programme, provide invitation letters for visas, and provide access to academic content.
- The consequences of any failure to provide such data will depend on the particular circumstances. For example, a failure to provide the relevant financial information will mean that we are unable to process any payment from you and may not be able to enter into the relevant contract with you. A failure to provide your personal details may mean that we cannot write an invitation letter for your visa.

Some data that you give to us is provided on a wholly voluntary basis – you have a choice whether to do so. Examples include:

- Disability and health condition information, which you may choose to provide to us in order that we can take this information into account when allocating appropriate accommodation to you.

OTHER SOURCES OF YOUR DATA

Apart from the data that you provide to us, we may also process data about you from a range of sources. These include:

- Data that we generate about you, such as when communicating with you, receiving your requests, orders and/or payments, and recording student academic attainment and tutor feedback.

Our Record of Processing Activity indicates the sources of each of the various categories of data that we process.

HOW WE SHARE YOUR DATA

We do not, and will not, sell your data to third parties. We will only share it with third parties external to the collegiate University, if we are allowed or required to do so by law and if we need to in order to fulfil our contract with you to provide a short academic programme.

Examples of bodies to whom we are required by law to disclose certain data include, but are not limited to:

PRIVACY NOTICE

We do not envisage that any decisions will be taken about you based solely on automated means, however we will notify you in writing if this position changes.

Any such changes will be reflected in updated versions of our Record of Processing Activity.

If there are legal proceedings, a regulatory, disciplinary or criminal investigation, suspected criminal activity, or relevant requests under data protection or freedom of information legislation, it may be necessary for us to suspend the deletion of data until the proceedings, investigation or request have been fully disposed of.
